Component Mission

The Inspector General (IG) conducts, supervises, and coordinates inspections, audits, investigations, and reviews relating to the programs and operations over which the Director of National Intelligence has authority and responsibility.

The Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 established the Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence. The ICIG's mission is to provide independent and objective oversight of the programs and activities within the responsibility and authority of the Director of National Intelligence, to initiate and conduct independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews, and to lead and coordinate the efforts of the Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum. The ICIG's goal is to have a positive and enduring impact throughout the Intelligence Community, to lead and coordinate the efforts of an integrated Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum, and to enhance the ability of the United States Intelligence Community to meet national security needs while respecting our nation's laws and reflecting its values. The Forum consists of the twelve statutory and administrative Inspectors General having oversight responsibility for an element of the Intelligence Community. The Chair of the Forum is the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as a Supervisory Inspections and Evaluations Project Manager providing daily guidance and oversight to employees assigned to the I&E Division.
- Lead and oversee staff in planning and conducting comprehensive inspections and evaluations of ODNI component, and IC element programs and other activities within the DNI responsibility and authority in accordance with the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE) Quality Standards for Inspections and Evaluations.
- Lead a team of professional staff, assess performance, provide feedback on personnel development, and write Performance Evaluation Reports.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Oversee the development and execution of basic concepts and approaches for inspections and evaluations, project plans, and staff assignments for each project. Provide guidance and direction to Inspectors regarding appropriate approaches and techniques for IG work, project execution, development of objectives, maintenance of planning schedules, and the development of findings and recommendations.
- Oversee the staff's ability to conduct interviews, define data collection requirements, collect and analyze data and records, and synthesize information to develop findings, conclusions, and recommendations.
- Direct the development of inspection and evaluation reports requiring analysis of complex programs/processes for assigned topic areas. Ensure written documents, including reports of inspection or evaluation, memoranda to management, and other documents, are written in compliance with the CIGIE Quality Standards for Inspections and Evaluations and the I&E Division standards.
- Lead and oversee the staff in the planning, development, and presentation of oral briefings for senior leaders regarding findings and the status of complex inspections and evaluations.
- Oversee the staff's performance in monitoring and assessing the progress of corrective actions taken by senior ODNI and IC leadership, and in providing substantive advice and innovative solutions to senior officials regarding the implementation and closure of recommendations.
- Provide substantive input to the annual work plan, Management Challenges memorandum, and IC IG's semiannual report to the DNI and Congress.
- Engage with Offices of Inspectors General (OIGs) across the IC by planning and supporting joint work and offering meaningful content to the Assistant Inspector General for I&E for the quarterly Inspections Committee meetings, and with OIGs across the federal government to maintain awareness of best business practices and current initiatives.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert ability to lead teams through the development of written studies, conducting complex reviews, and writing reports to substantiate findings in accordance with the CIGIE Quality Standards for Inspections and Evaluations and other standards associated with Federal oversight community.
- Expert ability to lead teams and coach personnel to exercise independent professional judgment and critical thinking skills in the conduct of inspections and evaluations, to form objective conclusions/recommendations based on empirical facts, qualitative and quantitative data, evidence, and other pertinent information, and to consider alternate solutions, courses of action, and strategies to address complex, controversial, and multi-faceted issues.
- Expert ability to lead teams through examining information, uncovering root causes, developing findings, and making cogent actionable recommendations.
- Expert ability to anticipate issues, resolve conflict among multiple priorities, and implement effective solutions to prevent problems that might impact timelines and deliverables.
- Expert ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing executive level officials, senior managers, external stakeholders, and audiences varying widely in background through inspection and evaluation findings and recommendations in clear and logical products that are meaningful, compelling, and relevant.
- Expert interpersonal skills to foster trust with a team and negotiate, coordinate, and collaborate with OIGs across the Federal government on complex issues and areas of concern that transcend individual government agencies.
- Lead by example and exemplify the core values of Integrity, Independence, Commitment, Diversity and Transparency.
